3. Meetings
   Meetings shall start at the time set out on the notice, and shall, subject to the discretion of the meeting, continue until all business on the Agenda is disposed of.

4. Right to Speak
   4.1 Any member desiring to speak shall stand and when called upon by the Chair shall address the Chair respectfully. If two or more members rise simultaneously, the Chair shall call upon the member who was noticed first.
   4.2 Each speaker shall confine his/her remarks to the matter being discussed and if the speaker fails to do so, shall be called to order by the Chair.
   4.3 When the Chair rises to speak, any member standing shall sit.
   4.4 No member, other than the proposer of a motion or an amendment, shall speak to it until it has been seconded. A motion or amendment lapsing for want of a seconder shall not be recorded in the Minutes.
   4.5 No member shall speak more than once to any question, except that the mover of a motion (but not of an amendment) shall have a right to reply which reply shall close the debate. An amendment shall constitute a separate question from the original motion and the mover of the original motion may exercise his/her right to reply before the first amendment is put.
   4.6 A member moving a motion or amendment shall be deemed to have spoken to it. A member seconding a motion or amendment without speaking to it, may reserve his/her right to speak to it subsequently.
   4.7 Speaking twice to a motion/amendment is permissible only after a request to the Chair has been granted and only in an explanation of his/her own previous statement which appears to be misunderstood.
4.8 Observers are welcome to attend School Sport Australia General meetings, Primary and Secondary Management, National Secretaries’ Committee, State Presidents’ Committee meetings and Executive Committee meetings and may speak on matters within the agenda when invited by the meeting chairperson.

5.5 If the first amendment is defeated (negated), the original motion again becomes open to amendment.

5.6 If the first amendment is carried, it becomes the substantive motion and is again open to amendment. No further amendment is possible once the substantive motion has been put to the meeting.

5.7 Only one amendment may be moved to a motion at a time, but further amendments may be foreshadowed without discussion. Amendments are voted upon before the motion. If an amendment is lost a further amendment MAY be moved.

5.8 An amendment must be relevant to the motion, and so framed that it forms, with the unamended part of the motion, a sensible and consistent proposal. It must not be a direct negation of the original motion.

5.9 The Chair shall, as far as practicable, call on speakers for and against a motion or amendment alternatively, subject to the right of the seconder to speak immediately after the mover. If two consecutive speakers have both argued for or against a motion or an amendment, and there is no member wishing to argue the opposite view or, in the case of a motion, to move an amendment, the motion or the amendment shall (subject, in the case of a motion, to the mover’s right of reply) be put without further debate.

When a motion of dissent with the ruling of the Chair has been duly proposed and seconded, the Chair shall be allowed three minutes to speak in explanation of his ruling. The mover of the motion shall then be allowed three minutes to speak in support of this motion. The question shall then be put to the vote. The Chair will then abide by the decision of the meeting.
6.2 Any member may raise a point of order, which shall take precedence over all other business, and which shall be open to discussion. The point must be raised at the time the alleged irregularity occurred and should be stated concisely. An explanation or contradiction shall not constitute a point of order.

7. Closure of Motion

7.1 A member who has not already participated in the debate may at any time, whether another speaker has the floor or not, move, “That the question be now put”, which motion, if accepted by the Chair, shall be put without amendment or debate. It needs no seconder. The Chair shall have absolute discretion to accept or refuse the motion. The Chair may also of his/her own volition put the question if he/she feels that adequate discussion has taken place. In either case, the mover of a motion shall retain right of reply. If an amendment is before the Chair, the closure motion shall be deemed to close the debate on the amendment only.

7.2 A member may at any time move, “That the speaker be no longer heard” or, “That the speaker be heard for a further limited period only”. Such motions shall be put without amendment or debate. No other motion except the closure motion or a motion dealing with the speaker’s time shall be moved while a speaker has the floor.
